

Chapter 165

"This woman is not easy!"

"She is very eager to get caught! If my son is in front of a woman like this, he really can't stand her way."

"Fortunately, she dumped the phone. I hope she will leave Nancheng and stop making trouble in Nancheng."

"Hey! She is a little-known girl who really wants to make trouble in the upper circle of Cloud City. She has stopped by herself. If we don't stop, we can also dismantle her. Block!"

"Such a woman, she must be crushed to death, and she must not be allowed to look up!"

"Bah!"

Most of these people originally thought that Suzi would be able to bow down to them and admit their mistakes in a humble way.

Isn't it all like this on TV and in the plot?

A b!tch woman should kneel and crawl her head to apologize, which is in line with their imagination of Suzi, but Suzi would rather die than bow her head, so overestimating, this angered those people more and more.

Although Suzi left without bowing his head, and the phone fell, he could no longer contact anyone.

Even Arron, she will not be able to contact again in the future.

Because she has no mobile phone number.

But Suzi's reputation in this upper-class circle has not been restored. They still define her as a demon smashing goods, and a full-fledged bad woman who confuses the upper-class circle with all evil.

"If she dares to make a comeback in the future, I will remove her arms first!" "I will remove her legs!"

"If you dare to make trouble in Nancheng again, I will make her a cage blind!"

As Suzi was screaming one after another, another figure appeared in the hall.

Elder Shu saw the person first: "A Zhen, what are you doing! I didn't lock you up, who released you?"

Darius looked at Elder Shu with an angry face: "Grandpa, why are you making a fool of yourself! You..."

Darius's shocking words were unacceptable, and he almost blurted out. Suddenly he thought that this was the family affair of the Shu family. Never before! I have been pestering her all the time, but even if I pestered her, she didn't pay attention to me. People don't have me at all, but you sit here and ask her to apologize to you, grandpa! You are too much. Up!"

Elder Shu was also angrily blowing his beard and staring. He looked at the people present and said: "You see it, have you all seen it? Up to now, this dead boy is still defending that woman! It shows that that woman is really not allowed to stay! If in the future She dare to return to Nancheng again, and my Shu family will be the first to punish her!"

"Grandpa!" Darius almost spurted blood. He knew that in this hall, in front of so many people, he couldn't say clearly. He originally wanted to come here to find Suzi, but he didn't see Shen here. Suzi, Darius turned around and left.

"Come back! You ba5tard, come back to me!" Elder Shu shouted in an old and angry voice behind him.

Darius never looked back.

He was going to find Suzi and wanted to find her imminently.

When Suzi left Fu's house, she drove back to her rental house. She had already packed everything at home. The ticket was the day after tomorrow. There was still a day and a half left, and she didn't want to be in this rental house.

Because I don't want to be harassed by those boring people.

With a snakeskin bag in one hand, Suzi was about to go out, but saw the man standing at the door.

Suzi's tone was really annoyed: "Mr. Shu, what are you doing here!"

Chapter 166

"Suzi..." Darius didn't know what to say.

"Excuse me, Mr. Shu, am I familiar with you? Are we familiar?" Suzi looked at Darius amusedly: "I admit, I asked you to borrow money once. That is too bad for me. I have already apologized to you. , What else do you want?"

What do you want!

Just because I asked you to borrow money once, not only did you fail to lend me a penny, you also pestered me every few days, and you pestered me, and you let your sister humiliate me, and you let your grandfather. Humiliated me in public, Darius, have I dug your ancestral grave! "

Darius: "Suzi, listen to me. Will you please listen to me?"

"Okay! Okay, you say, you say?" Suzi lost his temper when he was angry.

"I have an aunt." Darius said.

"fcuk me!"

"When my sister-in-law was young, she had a temper with my grandparents and ran away from home. She has been away for 30 years and never came back. Our Shu family sent people from all over the country to look for them all over the country. The person who found my little aunt, until today, we don't know whether my little aunt is alive or dead." Darius's tone was very desolate.

"The people in your family have been lost. They have been lost for 30 years. Did Suzi also abduct me? I am a woman. I'm sorry. I only seduce men. I am not interested in women! Please get out of here! Don't stop. My way!"

"You and my sister-in-law look alike." Darius said.

"Fart!" Suzi said fiercely: "If I want to look like your Shu family, I will disfigure my face!"

Darius: "..."

Seeing such a tough-tempered girl in front of him, Darius really felt that she must have some kind of relationship with his little aunt.

When my aunt ran away from home, although Darius was not born yet, Darius often heard from my grandpa that my aunt was born to a grandfather and an aunt, because my grandma scolded my aunt: "You are the same as your mother. It's a little hooves, he was born lowly, and he doesn't look like Miss Shu Jia."

My aunt replied at the time: "I have never been rare to be the eldest of the Shu family!" Then she ran away from home, and there was no news ever since.

Grandparents often regretted this.

And the aunt's biological mother, the grandfather's concubine, could not afford to be ill because of the loss of the little aunt, and she passed away because she was eager to miss her.

Before dying, the auntie told a terrifying secret.

She took Mrs. Shu's hand and said, "Madam, do you remember when we both gave birth together? The fetus you gave birth to died."

Old Mrs. Shu knew that she was wrong, so she asked eagerly: "What...what do you mean?"

The aunt said regretfully: "She... that fetus was actually not dead. She was replaced by me and let me take her away. I raised her and became my daughter and the only one of mine. The sustenance. My child, because I was undernourished when I was pregnant, and often beaten and scolded by you, he was born stillborn.

The daughter I raised is the biological daughter of your wife.

It's the girl you scolded as a cheap bone. She is your biological daughter. Madam, please find her back anyway and bring her back with you. She is your daughter..."

Having said this, the aunt and wife passed away.

And the Shu family, the whole family blasted the pot.

Mrs. Shu washed her face with tears all day, and then she ate and chanted Buddha, just to keep her lost daughter safe and secure for the rest of her life.

But until now thirty years have passed, the little aunt still hasn't been whereabouts. Is she dead or alive?

Or just gritted her teeth to hold back the breath, and would rather starve to death outside begging for food, and she would never return to Shu's house and be scolded as a cheap bone?
