

Chapter 707 – 712 of Punished by His Love Novel

Chapter 707

Was the little dumpling sleeping next to him awakened, she nestled in her father's arms like a kitten, listening to his father talking on the phone.

At the other end, it really was Elder Shu: "Arron...Don't be a good grandfather Shu. Grandpa Shu just leaned on the old man once and sent Lanita and her parents to Jiaxing Island."

When Mr. Shu said this, Arron asked plainly: "Do you know where I am now?"

Elder Shu: "..."

"In the car, I haven't gotten home yet, and my daughter is by my side. She was sleeping and was awakened by you." Arron said.

Elder Shu: "I didn't know there were children by your side."

Arron: "What do you mean by always calling me?"

Elder Shu sighed: "Arron, you have a child now, and you know that your child was woken up by me. You all feel distressed. Do you understand my feelings for my granddaughter? My daughter is gone. I only have Granddaughter, she has suffered for twenty years and wanted to marry you, so she offended your wife.

Based on what my grandfather Shu knows about you, Arron, you will not let go of my granddaughter Lanita.

So I can only send them to Gasing Island one step ahead of you. “

Arron’s tone was still very flat: “Send them out, do you feel safe?”

Elder Shu’s old voice is very confident: “This is what I want to tell you, Arron, I told you before, if you marry Lanita, I will do my best to help you take down Jiaxing Island, but now , Not only do you not marry Lanita, but you have to kill Lanita for your wife. Then not only will I not try my best to help you take down Jiaxing Island, but I will do my best to help Jiaxing Island against you!”

Hearing what Old Man Shu said, Arron was not surprised.

Arron had already thought about these at the meeting, and arranged it to his cronies.

“Father, I hope you have no regrets in your life.” Arron said.

Elder Shu heard something in Arron’s words: “You...what do you mean?”

Arron: “My daughter wants to sleep, I’ll hang up first.” After closing the line, Lilly lay on his father’s arms and looked at him: “Dad, is the old man who bullied my mother calling you?”

Arron nodded: “Yeah.”

Lilly pursed his lips: “That old man is really hateful. I was at Grandpa’s house the day before yesterday. I wanted to hit him with a slingshot and make him cry. But my mother refused. He treated my mother like that. Protect her.”

“Because your mother cares too much about family affection.”

“My mother doesn’t kiss him again!” Shen Only said.

Arron: “...”

He didn’t say any more, but held the only one: “Go to sleep.”

The car drove forward steadily. Lilly fell asleep again after a while. When he returned home, Arron gently hugged her upstairs. After putting the child away, Arron came out of the children’s room and beat Suzi. Up the phone.

At that end, Suzi just took a shower.

Still not half sleepy.

Lying on the bed tossing and turning, I suddenly felt that my mother became very fuzzy, and at this moment, she was thinking of her daughter and her husband in her mind.

She has been asleep with Arron’s arms for several months.

Even though Arron was in Kyoto in those few days a month ago, she slept in Arron’s bed. Even if he was not around, she felt safe.

But now, my heart is really empty.

But she was afraid that Arron would fall asleep, and didn’t want to call her husband again.

Her cell phone rang when she was having trouble sleeping. When she didn’t seem to be on the phone, she had a lot of expectation in her heart. Is Arron unable to sleep like her?

It must be from Arron!

Suzi stood up and took a look at the phone, then opened it eagerly, and yelled, "Husband, husband..."

Chapter 708

"I was in a meeting just now." Arron said to Suzi.

Suzi: "...you...what did you say?"

"Well, they all heard it." Arron said truthfully.

"You...you hate! I...I'm going to be ashamed! How will I see them in the future!" Suzi's shy face flushed over the phone.

Arron didn't care about it: "They think their president's wife is very cute."

Suzi: "..."

"Also, I haven't heard enough how you acted like a baby to me. Now you can act like a baby as you like. You can tease me as much as you want, because now there is no one next to me, it's me." Even if the man said this to her now, he still had an extremely calm tone.

Suzi: "...husband! You hate it!"

"Are you acting like a baby to me?" the man asked.

I really like her acting like a baby so much, even if he didn't see it with his own eyes, he could still imagine it.

Don't look at her usual indifference, calmness, and humility.

In fact, in private, she is a wonderful baby.

However, Suzi felt embarrassed when asked by a man like this.

Arron didn't mean to let her go: "k!ss me."

Suzi: "I don't want to care about you!"

The man sneered: "That's why you want to wait for me to punish you!"

Suzi: "Come on! Punish me now!"

The man shook his head: "It's definitely not coming now."

"Then when can you come over, how is the matter handled? How did you hold the meeting until now, is our only one asleep?" She asked repeatedly.

The main reason is that he is tired.

I'm also afraid that the only thing I'm not used to.

The only thing growing up is that it is the first time to be separated from my mother.

"The only one who sleeps soundly, don't worry, I'll take the one and fly over immediately after I have settled the matter." the man said.

"Well, but you don't have to worry about me. Why don't I worry about going back to my hometown?" Suzi said differently.

It is strange that she never wanted to sleep. Now, lying on the bed, listening to the phone call from the man, she gradually became sleepy.

"Husband, don't hang up the phone." She said.

“Yeah.” At the other end, the man replied, “What story do you want to hear?”

“Um...” She thought for a long time and couldn’t remember. She had never heard stories since she was a child. Mom and Dad were too busy, so there was no time to tell her stories to coax her to sleep.

“You k!ss me again and I will tell you a story.” the man said.

“Um... okay.” She obediently k!ssed the man on the phone.

“Once upon a time, there was a little girl...” The man’s voice was gentle and slow.

“And then...” She yawned.

“The little girl is awkward and arrogant, seeing that everyone owes her two hundred dollars, and the little girl obviously likes a man, but she pretends to hate him in front of that man... ..”

“Haha...” Suzi smiled very softly, and she yawned again: “What’s next?”

“Later, the arrogant little girl was obediently conquered by this man, lying obediently in this man’s arms, she fell asleep only after listening to the stories told by this man.”

“Hehehe...” Suzi just smiled and fell asleep.

Chapter 709

This night, she slept soundly, but without his arm as a pillow for herself, she woke up very early the next day.

As soon as the faint sunlight came in in the early morning, Suzi woke up.

It was just after six o'clock in the morning, and she had breakfast in the hotel and went out to call a taxi.

Since it was late at night when I arrived at the county town from the airport yesterday, Suzi only felt that the county town was no longer the quaint town of fifteen years ago. Instead, it was replaced by tall buildings. Now when I look at Suzi in the daytime, I feel that it is a small county town. Expanding everywhere.

The county seat is developing very fast, and I don't know what the old home, not far from the county seat, in the west of the city, is now?

It is estimated that every household should be a newly built two-story building, right?

But only his own home.

When I left at the age of twelve, my family was still an earthen house. After so many years, the dirt houses should have been dumped, right?

Calling a taxi and negotiating the price, there is no such thing as Arron said to give people two thousand dollars a day in a wallet car.

Suzi only gave him the previous wallet for one day, and the driver was very excited, and the driver's words of joy suddenly increased.

After Suzi got in the car, he enthusiastically asked Suzi.

"Sister-in-law, look at what you are wearing. You are not like a local. You are like a girl from a big city. Are you here to visit relatives or friends, or just travel around?" Asked.

Suzi: "Both."

Immediately afterwards, she said: "This county is developing really fast. It looks like a city."

The driver replied: "No, the county town was more than four times smaller than this twenty years ago. Now it has expanded greatly. You see, it's a high-end community in front of you, like a park."

"Yes, the scenery here is really beautiful." Suzi said perfunctorily.

"You said here, the scenery here is not beautiful, you haven't seen East Lake. The scenery of East Lake is beautiful." "East Lake." Although Suzi has been away from his hometown for fifteen years, in his childhood memory, the county seat There is no lake.

"Man-made lake, there is an East Lake in the east of the city, and the West Lake is to be built in the west of the city. The construction is about to start. It is now being mobilized for demolition. It has been just a few days. When the West Lake is built, the two lakes will echo each other. It's even more beautiful."

"Motivate for demolition?" Suzi suddenly thought that his hometown was in the west of the city.

I don't know if the West Lake will be within the scope of its hometown.

"Master driver, please drive faster." Suzi urged.

"Good little mushroom cool." The driver speeded up again.

The best hotel in the city where Suzi lived is actually not far from the west of the city, only five kilometers away. The more the driver drove westward, the more signs he could see everywhere he was preparing to start construction.

"Miss, you see, construction here is about to start." The driver still enthusiastically introduced Suzi.

Suzi had no intention of listening. At the intersection ahead, Suzi immediately said: “Master, turn left.”

The driver nodded immediately.

After a while, Suzi said: “Master, turn right.”

Although the appearance has been widened, the route is still the same. Suzi has entered the area she is most familiar with, then turn north, enter a rural road and drive another kilometer, it should be the village where she had lived since childhood.

However, at the intersection, Suzi had already seen that the village she was in had already begun to be demolished, and the houses on the side of the road had been demolished.

Suzi’s heart suddenly became tense.

The driver also noticed: “Little girl, do you have any relatives here?”

Suzi said: “My home is here.”

Driver: “...” The car continued to drive forward, and the driver said as he drove: “The forklift and crane have begun to work...”

When the car stopped, Suzi went crazy and ran forward: “Wait a minute! Wait a minute!”

Chapter 710

Suzi ran all the way, ran under the forklift without hesitation, and stood there.

The forklift driver was frightened in a cold sweat. He stopped his operation, got out of the car and yelled at Suzi: "You don't want your life! You don't want your life, you shouldn't come to trouble me, you, you, Go away, don't delay our work!"

Suzi stood still: "This is my house. If you demolish this place, who has my consent!"

Forklift driver: "..."

After a pause, he said, "We are only following orders. You must demolish and relocate here. You must be agreed by Murakami."

Suzi looked up at the faces around him.

She did not see her familiar faces.

She didn't see her neighbor when she was a child, and maybe she didn't recognize her.

At this time, there was an old voice behind him: "Suzi, are you Suzi?"

Suzi turned her head and looked at the hunchback in front of her, an eighty-year-old elder, she hesitated for a moment, and asked, "Old man, you are..."

"Are you Suzi?" the old man asked again.

"Old man, I am Suzi, my name is Suzi Suzi, my father's name is Kuishan Shen, my mother..."

Before Suzi finished speaking, the old man choked up: "Your family...Your family has finally come."

Suzi: "...” For a while, she didn't understand what the old man meant. She asked again: "Old man, you are..."

"I'm Grandpa Shen Er next door to your house. You forgot. When you were young, your parents worked all at once. When no one looked at you, your parents would put you in our house."

"Grandpa Shen Er?" Suzi flushed his eyes immediately: "Are you Grandpa Shen Er?"

Suzi's mind suddenly remembered the appearance of Grandpa Shen Er.

When Suzi was a child, Grandpa Shen Er was not so old. At that time, he looked like 50 or 60 years old. At that time, his parents would often put Suzi in the house of his neighbor, Grandpa Shen Er.

Grandpa Shen Er and Grandma Shen are among the best in this village.

They had no sons, only one daughter hired a son-in-law.

For this reason, the people in the village and the families with large populations also bullied Grandpa Shen's house.

Just like bullying Suzi's family.

For this reason, Shen Er's daughter, Suzi, and her husband could not bear the bullying of the villagers. They went out to work at a young age. They did not come back for many years, and Shen Er's grandmother often became angry because of the sc*mbag. Then he was gone.

Now, there is only Grandpa Shen Er in the family.

At the end of the new year this year, the above noticed that all areas several miles away from the west of the city would be relocated, and an artificial lake would be built here.

The original villagers here received corresponding compensation, but Suzi's family alone.

No one has been here.

The grandfather Shen Er next door anxiously ran to the east of the village to see, hoping that Shen's family could come to meet the demolition as soon as possible.

Chapter 711

Now the first-class and second-class people really brought Suzi to Pan.

"Suzi, come, you come to the second grandfather's house, and the second grandfather will talk to you in detail." Although grandfather Shen Er is old, he is not confused. He knows that the people here are so messy and hard to talk.

Suzi looked at the people present, and then at the forklift worker who was about to break the ground. She said: "I am the owner of this house. Since I am here, you must give me an explanation, or I will lie down. Here, it depends on how you dig!"

Forklift driver: "..."

They are also part-time workers, and everything is arranged according to the above. The heads who are in charge of ordering the forklifts immediately called out. After a while, the heads sighed and shook their heads and said to the forklift drivers: "Eh, no way, we Work is temporarily suspended. After all, it is now people-oriented. The real owner of this house has come. When will we handle it? When will we start working again."

As soon as the head spoke, the production car doors turned around and left.

They are all part-time workers. Who wants to make trouble these days?

The home of Suzi, which was about to start construction, was finally preserved.

In fact, it doesn't make much sense. It's just a few soil embryo houses with no roof. There are some extremely dilapidated furniture in the house, which has long been decayed, but even so, Suzi is still in the frame of his house, looking for it. Something.

Not to mention, she really found out a chapter of a photo taken with her parents when she was a child.

In the photo, Suzi is only five or six years old, and his mother is also very young. His father looks more than ten years older than his mother. Both father and mother seem to be honest and friendly people. The family of three is very warm.

Seeing this photo, Suzi quickly blurred his vision.

"Suzi, boy..." Grandpa Second shouted at the broken wrist.

Suzi immediately turned around, "Second Grandpa?" "Come here and come to my house." Second Grandpa said.

Suzi nodded, put the photo away, and followed Grandpa Second to his house.

The people in the village pointed to Suzi, but Suzi couldn't hear what they were talking about. As soon as Suzi walked in, they stopped talking, but they didn't want to say anything, Suzi was just staying here for a few days, picking up the ashes of parents, she will never come back again. Following the second master to the home, Suzi discovered that the second grandfather's house was still a mess.

Suzi couldn't help feeling sad: "Grandpa, how many years have you been..."

And the turnover shook his head: "We are poor and there is no one at home. Your little aunt and uncle have never dared to come back. They bought a house in the next county town to live in. They asked me to live with them. I am not used to it. I stayed at home, Suzi, the second grandfather called you here to tell you that the demolition money of your family was taken away by your cousin's daughter."

Uncle's daughter?

Suzi had no impression of the uncle, let alone the daughter of the uncle's family.

"Your cousin and aunt both eat commercial food. They have been living in the city. You left her at the age of twelve, so you don't know them well. Your cousin's daughter is two years older than you, and she is now there. When working in the county, when the demolition money was allocated here a while ago, it was the money that your cousin's daughter came to receive, which was a full 300,000 yuan.

Suzi, that's a lot of money, it's enough for you to buy a house in the county seat. "The second grandfather was talking, and his throat was suffocated.

Suzi nodded: "I know, I know Grandpa Second, then how can I find my cousin now?"

In fact, 300,000 yuan is nothing to Suzi, but even if it is demolished, he must have the final say. Besides, the back of this house is the place where dad is buried. Although she Even if she didn't come back, she knew that her mother must be buried with her father. "

Has the sister of this cousin's family thought about how to house the underground parents?

Suzi decided to find his cousin.

“Your cousin and them all live on the scene, and now they are the people with curtains in the county, they...” Grandpa Shen Er said hesitantly.

At this moment, a sharp voice came from the courtyard: “I heard that Suzi is back! Where is it? I want to see where Suzi is! She dare to come back!”

Chapter 712

When Grandpa Second, who was talking with Suzi in the hall, heard the arrogant voice, he trembled in fright.

He whispered to Suzi, “Your cousin is here.”

Suzi turned his head indifferently, and saw a very decent woman standing in the dilapidated courtyard of the second grandfather.

The woman looks five or six years older than Suzi. At first glance, others will think that this woman is in her early thirties. Although she is dressed decently, the skin on her face is not good, and she still has a little hair. .

The woman shouted into the house very arrogantly: “Suzi! You still know that you come back, you come out for me!”

After calling Suzi, she said to Grandpa Shen Er, “Second old man, I think you are in the wrong line. Your own daughter and son-in-law dare not return to this land. You still expect a 15 or 6 Does the ba5tard who haven’t come back for a year support you?”

ba5tard?

As soon as she heard these two words, Suzi could remember her when she was a child, and many adults here called her: “Little ba5tard

Many people pointed at her when facing her: “Your dad can’t give birth. You are the oil bottle that your mother brought over. You are a blessed little bastard. Your dad actually loves you so much.”

Yes, my father loves her very much.

Since childhood, the family was poor. Dad was semi-disabled and could not do heavy labor. Mom could not go out to work with her alone, so the family was always poorer than others. Even so, Dad would find some chores around here. After doing it, he often improves Suzi’s life. Every time he eats meat at home, his parents do not eat it. They watch Suzi eat it alone.

Suzi asked his parents why they didn’t eat it?

Mom and dad told her in unison: “Suzi wants to grow his body, so he has to eat a lot, and he has to eat meat.”

Until the moment his father died, in Suzi’s heart, his father was his biological father.

She came out of Grandpa Shen Er’s room and looked calmly at the woman named her cousin by Grandpa Shen Er: “Who are you?”

“I’m your cousin!”

“I don’t have a cousin!” Suzi said calmly.

“I don’t intend to recognize you as a cousin!” The cousin said in a contemptuous and arrogant tone: “Suzi! You are quite well informed about this. You have been wild for fifteen years, and you will immediately start the demolition here. Are you back? I’m telling you! No matter how well your news is, you can still be well informed about me? Don’t look at you in the wild for more than ten years, don’t look at you, don’t have a family, and don’t give your dead father a grave, However, we, the Shen family, know all the messy things you have done outside!”

Suzi was startled, and then asked: “What do you know?”

“Knowing that you didn’t do anything good outside! Knowing that you have been doing that kind of business outside for so many years! Knowing that you brought oil bottles like your mother! Suzi, am I wrong?” The woman provoked Asked rhetorically.

Grandpa Shen Er, who came out of the room, took a walking stick and pointed at the woman: “Shen Cuishan! Suzi is your cousin anyway. If you take her demolition money, why are you bullying her like this? She came back alone, I saw her come back in a taxi alone!”

At this time, the taxi driver who had been waiting outside also came in. He had not received the 1,000 yuan promised to him by Suzi, so at this time, he saw that Suzi had just come here and had trouble with the people here, the driver master. I was also afraid that the money would not be available again, so I came in and ended the game: “Boss Shen, Boss Shen, I know you.”

The driver called Shen Cuishan.

Shen Cuishan looked back at the driver: “You! Know me?”

The driver smiled mildly: “Boss Shen, I often run taxis in the county town. I often wait outside your karaoke halls, so I am familiar with you and your karaoke halls. This is Mr. Shen, this The young lady was my guest. She came out of the best hotel in the county, and she didn’t know that her house was demolished or I told me she was going to build the West Lake here.

Besides, this lady, she...the hotel she lives in is so high-end, she can’t possibly...”

Before the driver had finished speaking, Shen Cuishan immediately yelled:
“Where are you the driver, get out of here!”
