

Chapter 799

And her A55 hurts so badly, she is the only one who defies the upper hand.

Since then, Shen's only child has taken advantage of her. Her sudden burst of a series of punches came down, and Walton's eyes turned into panda eyes in an instant.

Hey, it's called a black one, and I can't tell where the eyelids are from the eyeballs.

This situation is quite funny.

The people present couldn't help but laugh.

Darius also laughed, his mother sobbed behind him, and Darius turned around to persuade her mother: "Mom, I will tell you a lot of things for a while. I always have a doubt."

Shu Mu asked: "What doubt?"

Darius asked solemnly: "Mom. You know everything about my aunt and little clothes. You said to yourself, my aunt and my little uncle are such self-willed and vicious people?"

Shu Mu shook her head.

Darius sighed with a taste.

Su's mother immediately thought of something: "Could it be that Galia..."

Darius shook his head: “There is insufficient evidence, so don’t talk nonsense.”

Mother nodded.

At this moment, Walton suddenly shouted: “Auntie, save me, save me, aunt...”

Shu Mu: “...”

Darius held Shu’s mother, and he came to Walton by himself: “Walton! When I can save you, my cousin has saved you again and again. Three months ago, you were framed. At that time, Suzi, you had no chance of being alive, but Brother Fu spared your life! A week ago, you also splashed your cousin Rayna at the door of the company with strong sulfuric acid. On the contrary, the cousin had splashed Young Master Jun Xiao’s arm, and now Young Master Jun Xiao’s arm still has fresh scars.

Do you think Young Master Jun will marry a woman like you? You are so whimsical!

You have been taken away by the police. You wounded someone in the street, which was a severe sentence. Why did you come out only 24 hours inside?

It’s because I begged Young Master Jun to let him not care about you!

Because of Young Master Jun’s generosity, you didn’t go to jail!

However, every time you have been taught repeatedly!

You want to kill your cousin again and again.

You are hopeless!

All your fate today is yours! “

Walton lay on the ground crying: “Cousin...”

“Steward!” Darius said, “Blast this woman out!”

“No...” Walton cried and cried, her voice was shut outside the gate, and no one cares about her life or death.

Isn't it Elder Shu's granddaughter?

Walton made a mistake, and Elder Shu would not risk his life to save Lanita like he did to save Lanita.

On the contrary, Elder Shu would catch what Walton had just said and attack Suzi in turn.

At this moment, Arron put Suzi in his arms to comfort him, but Elder Shu came to Arron, and said to Arron very coldly: “Arron, since you are here today, I will do something I must tell you in person.”

After speaking, Elder Shu looked at Suzi coldly.

Arron's arms tightened Suzi's arms, but the tone of voice between him and Mr. Shu was extremely alienated: “What's the matter?”

Chapter 800

“Walton is certainly wrong, but she is right about one thing.” Elder Shu looked at Suzi fiercely and unscrupulously accused: “This woman, she has never been a good woman!”

Suzi: “I hope you never regret what you said! Old thing! Your whole life's books have been read for nothing! Your whole life's good family style is a pretense!”

Installed!

Hypocrisy!

Get your fame!

I suddenly understood why your daughter ran away from home!

Because she feels that you, a man of reputation, are not worthy of being her father!

You are not worthy!

You damned old thing! “

When Suzi scolded Old Man Shu, she herself was full of tears.

She seldom cried since she was a child, because she knew that crying could not solve the problem.

At this moment, Suzi was crying like a tearful man.

Why cry?

Is it because of the old man who has framed her countless times in front of me?

Or is it because of mom?

Mother has suffered too much in this life.

Too much, Suzi would never forgive the old man in front of him.

She only hoped that the old man would die soon! Hurry up and die!

Seeing her mother crying, Lilly also cried and looked at Elder Shu. This time, she did not beat anyone, but said to Elder Shu sadly: "You old grandfather, I don't know why you want it every time. So to my mother, what has my mother offended you? Why do you always bully? Our teacher has said that the kid who bullies is not a good boy, because you are an old man, so do you bully? It's okay, wait for me to grow up. When I get older, I will avenge my mother. I want you to look good!"

After speaking, she stood in front of her mother, blocking her mother, and looked at Elder Shu without fear.

Elder Shu was taken aback: "..."

Because for a second, he found that this little girl looked a lot like when his little daughter was five or six years old.

The old man still remembers that the youngest daughter didn't know her father very much when she was five or six years old, because she had always lived with her mother in a separate way. Occasionally, he visited their mother and daughter once, and every time he would give alms to the youngest daughter. Sweetness, however, the little girl doesn't want it every time.

Or throw it away.

Or, smash it directly under your feet.

Because of this, he hated the concubine room more and more, he thought these were taught by the concubine room.

But the concubine's temper was bigger.

Later, the concubine's room simply refused to let him come to visit the two of them.

Over time, he and the pair of mother and daughter became more estranged.

It was not until later, after the concubine's death that he told the amazing secret, that Elder Shu knew that the little girl was actually the child born to him and his wife.

For this, Mr. Shu felt guilty all his life.

Every time I think about it, I think of the arrogant appearance of my little daughter when she was five or six years old.

Every time I think of it, Mr. Shu feels very sad.

Now, he saw that the five or six-year-old girl in front of him was so similar to his little daughter.

"You..." Elder Shu shouted involuntarily.